I, Deborah Dalton, first being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

1. Since May 4, 1981, I have been employed in the Washington, D.C. (headquarters) office of the United States Environmental Protection Agency as an environmental scientist in the Office of Waste Programs Enforcement, a division of the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response. My duties in this position are to provide policy coordination between our headquarters office and the regional office in Boston, and to serve as a member of litigation and negotiations teams for cases brought under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act and the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act.

2. In this capacity, I performed work on the case of U.S.E.P.A. vs. Solvents Recovery Service of New England. My work on this case has included review and coordination of scientific support requirements for the case. I have also reviewed and commented on technical documents and participated in negotiations.

3. Bi-weekly case specific time sheets were kept during the period August 9, 1981 thru the present indicating the amount of time spent by each employee on a particular project or case. These records, which are regularly kept by our office in the ordinary course of business indicated that for the period August 9, 1981 - October 2, 1982, I spent 175 hours on the above mentioned case for a total cost to the Government for salary and benefits of $2981.00.

4. In addition I incurred travel and per diem expenses recorded in official travel vouchers for out of town work relating to this case totalling $ 1094.97.

5. The total expenses to the government for my work on this case was $4075.97.

Further, Affiant sayeth not.
